

National Corporate Housing Gives Back This Holiday Season

By National Corporate Housing

Dated: Nov 25, 2008

National Corporate Housing is giving back this holiday season. National is kicking off their "Adopt a Family" program this week in all of their regional offices.

Herndon, VA-National Corporate Housing is giving back this holiday season. Every National Corporate Housing branch office will "Adopt a Family" in need this holiday. The program, which is designed to provide food and gifts to needy families, is just one way that National plans to help others during these difficult economic times.

Tom Atchison, President of National Corporate Housing, encourages and supports his team to find ways to give back to the community. "In 1999 when we started National, one of the most important beliefs was to foster a "charitable mindset". We believe in giving of ourselves for the betterment of the communities within which we live and work".

Each National office will adopt a family in need in their local markets, hand select gifts that best match the needs of each family member, wrap the gifts and deliver the gifts and a holiday meal to the families during the week of December 21st, 2008. Given the company's charitable attitude, each team member gets involved and takes pride in helping those less fortunate.

In addition to the holiday "Adopt a Family" initiative, National Corporate Housing employees give both time and resources throughout the year to such additional causes as The Ronald McDonald House, Kids in Distress, Race for a Cure, AIDS Walk, local food drives and the Toys for Tots campaign.

National Corporate Housing, headquartered in Herndon, Virginia, provides fully furnished and accessorized apartments for stays of 30 days or longer throughout the United States for leisure travelers, relocations or temporary assignments.
